

When in need of
PRINTING
Give your order to
The Leader

The Raymond Leader

C. W. Card & Sons
Livery and Transfer
Auto in Connection
Raymond, Alberta

VOL. 12

RAYMOND, ALBERTA, SATURDAY, Sept. 23, 1916

NO 37

Supt. Kirkham Brings Message of Service To M.I.A. Convention

If the spirit of the M.I.A. convention, held last Saturday and Sunday, is carried into the wards and becomes operative in the various associations when the season opens next month, 1916-17 should be one of the most successful years in the history of this great movement in the Taylor stakes. A veritable dynamo of enthusiasm and 100 per cent efficient, Elder Oscar Kirkham, field superintendent of the Y.M.M.I.A. was present from Salt Lake, radiating the true "Mutual Spirit," which is one of the reasons for the success of this convention.

Pres. Z. N. Skouson, assisted by his counselors, Devoe Woolf and D. G. Schman, presided at all sessions, except Sunday morning, when Mrs. Woolf was in charge. There were delegates present from every ward in the stake. Especially gratifying was the representation from Burnsville. Although only a very small ward they sent a stronger delegation than several of the large wards.

Supt. Kirkham outlined at considerable length the work for the coming season. The general board had mapped out a season of mutual activity. Scout work, special activities, vocations and industries, class work, etc. comprise an outline that will demand careful, persistent and studios work on the part of the officers. The new Merit Certificate system will also be pushed as it is felt that this will be most effective.

Five sessions were held. At the concluding one Sunday evening addresses were given by Mrs. Devoe Woolf, representing the Y.L.M.I.A., and Pres. Skouson of the Y.M.M.I.A. Elder Junius Romney former president of the Jeunez stake, Mexico, gave an interesting discourse on the benefits of Mutual aid, citing instances to illustrate his points. Supt. Kirkham spoke briefly but impressively of the weight of responsibility resting on officers of the wonderful influence they could wield and the unlimited service to humanity that lay before them. Pres. Allen expressed keen pleasure at the success of the convention and hoped the officers and workers would carry the good spirit into their wards.

Musical numbers were rendered by Miss Nalder and Miss Milner, Leo Brewerton and Leo Coumbs.

The social Saturday evening in the K. A. "gym" was also a splendid success. With a healthy hospitality everyone present enjoyed the program and danced thoroughly. Supt. Kirkham spoke briefly on the question of dancing. He did not condemn the modern dance providing they were danced properly. If the heart was right and the motives of the dance good and pure, he could see no reason to place the ban on the late steps. Mr. Kirkham also pleased the company with three beautiful vocal selections. Punch and wafers were served by the young ladies.

The Leader would like to draw the attention of the school board to the fact that on holidays and patriotic occasions there is no flag on the central school. If there is one building in a town that should have a flag it is the school. In Raymond the national colors on the school building are conspicuous by their absence. The board should see that this oversight is remedied.

Knight Sugar Co. Makes Big Shipment

One of the largest shipments of cattle that ever left the local stock yards pulled out Tuesday, when the Knight Sugar company shipped five hundred head of beef cattle to Chicago. The stock were loaded into twenty cattle cars and are going east via Winnipeg. There is a possibility of them being disposed of in that city, but more likely in Chicago. The cattle will bring the Sugar Company a cheque for something like $10,000.

Watson's Underwear that will wear a full, new stock at the Mercantile.

Junius Romney, of the Beneficial Life Insurance company, returned this week to Utah.

Wm. Blair and Wm. Clemis presented a box of pears to the local boys of the 113th Batt. an acceptable present to be sure.

Archie Robbins has been selected president of the second ward Y.M.M.I.A., and he has chosen Melvin T. King and Junius Anderson as his counselors.

Misses Viola Allen and Helen Holmes returned last week to Provo, where they will attend the Utah Agricultural College.

"Alma, Where Do You Live?" is the first musical comedy of the season and comes to the Opera House for one night, Thursday evening, Sept. 28. Replete with catchy songs, new dances, pretty costumes and a large chorus of beautiful girls, this sparkling piece of frivolity from the French stage should be well received in Raymond. Book your seats today at the Magrath Pharmacy.

Miss Hazel Skouson, who recently graduated from the L. D. S. hospital, Salt Lake, is now in Honolulu engaging in her profession.

Vernon Coumbs and Miss Wilcox, of Cardston, were married in that town Wednesday evening. Both of the contracting parties are well known here.

WANTED: A good dining room girl. Apply: Card Hotel.

Dr. A. Clayton Greenaway FORMERLY WITH DR. LOVERING OF LETHBRIDGE. OFFICE DR. J. S. WRAY'S OFFICE. RAYMOND - ALBERTA.

FOR SALE—A Comfortable five roomed house with lights and water, splendid location. A Bargain. Apply George Speidel Raymond.

Cazier-Palmer

The marriage will take place in Salt Lake very shortly of Miss Maydel Cazier and Mr. Asel Palmer, both well-known in Raymond. Miss Cazier has been laboring as a missionary in the Indiana conference for about a year, but was released to return to Utah. Mr. Palmer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Palmer, of Raymond, and is a student at the Utah Agricultural College. Miss Cazier was for several years head of the literature department of the Knight Academy. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cazier, of Cardston, and a very brilliant young lady. The newly weds will reside in Logan until Mr. Palmer completes his college work.

The Raymond Millinery is now established in its new quarters in the new Snow building and is showing the latest fall styles in millinery.

Dr. A. Clayton Greenaway, graduate of Toronto University and a brother-in-law and partner to Dr. Lovering of Lethbridge, has opened an office in Raymond and will look after the professional work in Raymond, New Dayton and Stirling. Dr. Greenaway has successfully practiced in Lethbridge and has had a year's experience in a Toronto hospital. He will have his office in Dr. Wray's former premises just west of the Opera House.

Hundreds Bid Farewell To Local Kilties

There were many tear-dimmed eyes and heavy hearts in the throng of over three hundred people that assembled at the C. P. R. depot last Sunday evening to bid farewell and Godspeed to some of the Raymond boys of the 113th battalion departing for Calvary overseas. It was a most fitting send-off to the boys, and they knew that the very best wishes of the people of Raymond will accompany them no matter where they go.

The special train from Cardston pulled in about 9:30. The last kisses, hand claps and farewells were soon over, the boys courageously bearing up under the sorrow of separation from loved ones and friends, boarded the train, and with cheers and songs ringing from three hundred throats, the cars slowly moved away into the night.

It was all over in a few short moments. Then comparative silence reigned as the citizens sought their homes. But in every heart there was a prayer for the safety of the young heroes who had just departed, willingly and nobly, prepared to make enormous sacrifices for their country and the world's sacred liberties.

Attention Farmers

We wish to call your attention to the fact that our cream hauler has been taken off the route and in the future Cream will be received at the old Crystal Dairy station opposite the Security Block every Monday with Mrs. Joe Harlow in charge. Yours truly,

Magrath Creamery Association

Opera House 1 Night Only 1 Thursday, Sept. 28th, '16

The United Producing Company presents that Enchanting Musical Comedy

ALMA

Where Do You Live?

20 PEOPLE - MOSTLY GIRLS

Music by Jean Briquet Lyrics by George V. Flobart

Special Scenery Big Beauty Chorus Dainty Costumes

Numerous Melodious and Catchy Songs

Seats on Sale at Drug Store

PRICES 1.00, .75, .50 Cts.

Wait for this Big, Popular Attraction!

Autumn will soon be here and you will NEED new stylish things to wear. Come to us for them, we are the "Style Center" of this city. Come to us for them and the Price will be low.

We have built up our business by always telling the TRUTH to our customers. The confidence this community has in our store is constantly building our business bigger.

Raymond Mercantile Co.

"We Want Your Trade"

Wait For "Alma, Where Do You Live"

IN THE District Court OF THE DISTRICT OF LETHBRIDGE

IN THE MATTER OF THE GUARDIANSHIP OF ELIZA-BETH EMMA TOLLESTRIUP AN INFANT UNDER THE
AGE OF TWENTY-ONE
YEARS & LAWFUL WIDOW AND RELICT OF THOMAS
FRANCIS TOLLESTRIUP, DE-CEASED.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the above court at Lethbridge on Monday the 16th day of October, A. D.
1916 at 11 o'clock a. m. or as near thereafter as the application can be heard for the grant of Letters of Guardianship of the above infant to Christian Francis Tollestriup, the father-in-law of the said infant.

DATED at the City of Lethbridge in the Province of Alberta this 13th day of September A. D.
1916.

DAVID HORTON ELTON,
Solicitor for the Applicant.

LOST—Sunday evening a rain coat on Broadway, Raymond.
Finder please return to Leader
Office.

FOR SALE—A 16x18 29 horse
Tent, suitable for threshing outfit.
Cost $60 will sell for $30. Has never been used. Apply, J. L. Gibb and Son, Magrath.

Magrath Will Have 15 Threshing Outfits

Magrath will have about fifteen threshing machines to thresh her crop this fall. Seven new outfits will be operating besides the old ones. Hillmer brothers, Phillips, Folger, Whitt, Patching, Elhart and Duglow are all buying new outfits. There will be about five individual outfits brought in this year.
T. W. Patching has his outfit already operating and is delighted with it.

Pie Phillip Palmer, of the 82nd Battalion is now in France but not in the firing line, as was reported about town. The public should understand that going to France does not necessarily mean active participation in the trenches.
Phillip may not see action for weeks or months.

"Alma, Where Do You Live," appears at the Assembly Hall for one night, Wednesday, Sept. 27th.
Pie Clarence Ostlund, discharged by the Canadian examining board at Shorncliffe on account of his hearing, arrived home last evening from the east. He was met at Moheine Hat by Mrs. Ostlund.

Wood Brothers, the enterprising meat merchants, are putting in a line of groceries and will open for business in this department very shortly. They will aim to carry only a fresh, reliable line and give the best of service.

175th Called In at Once

Raymond boys of the 175th Batt., about 20 in all, here on harvest leave, received telegrams yesterday to proceed at once to Calgary. They left for that city this morning. An immediate departure for "somewhere" is expected.

A grain company with a string of elevators through Southern Alberta may commence the erection of an elevator at Magrath immediately. Representatives of the company were in town Wednesday looking over the field and it is likely that their investigation will result in something material before long.

Eliza Karen says that he looks for a crop on a forty acre field that will beat any record on the American continent. It required six pounds of twine to the acre. The land was summer fallowed and the crop had grazed over it. This field will be threshed shortly when something big in wheat yields is expected.

About eighty per cent of the grain is down and in the shock, according to an estimate given the Leader by Oscar Bunnell, of the Ogilvie Milling company. Mr. Bun-nell is expecting the best year his company has enjoyed since coming into Magrath.

Lieut. Karren Is Back Home Out of Army

Lieut. F. W. Karren arrived home from England Wednesday evening. He was permanently discharged from service in the Canadian army both at home and abroad after undergoing examinations at the hands of three different medical boards. The reason for his discharge was a breakdown of the nervous system, especially of the optic nerves, an affection that threatened to bring on very serious consequences. Lieut. Karren has received an honorable discharge from the service.

In a long and interesting interview with the Leader Lieut. Karren told of his experiences overseas and of conditions there, much of which cannot be published. This point stood out prominently in his conversation the tide has turned and the Axis are the highest and the best to victory. He said that it pained him greatly to return home, but he felt that he had done his duty. He spoke in glowing terms of the record of the Canadians at the front.
Quite a number of the 13th were now in France, while the rest were in the cavalry division at Shorncliffe with Major Brown second in command. The Magrath boys are all feeling fine.

After being boarded Lieut. Karren "did" London and travelled extensively in provincial England and Wales.

Dr. H. E. Dice

AT DR. WRAY'S OFFICE; HOURS
3 TO 5 P. M. LEAVE CALLS WITH
MR. W. E. BEATT

Phone: Raymond 46
" Magrath 10

I HAVE RENTED

Johnson & Coleman
Livery Barn
GOOD SERVICE ASSURED
Frank MacLeod

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH WEST LAND REGULATIONS

THE solehead of a family, or any male over 18 years old may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the District. Entry by proxy may be made at any Dominion Lands Agency (not Sub-agency) on certain conditions.

Duties—Six months residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within one mile of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres, on certain conditions. A habitable house is required except where residence is performed in the vicinity.

In certain districts a homesteader of good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section along side his homestead. Price $100 per acre.

Duties—Six months residence in each of three years after earning homestead patent; also 50 acres extra cultivation.
Pre-emption patent may be obtained as soon as homestead patent, on certain conditions.

A settler who has exhausted his homestead right may take a purchase homestead in certain districts. Price $100 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $500.

The area of cultivation is subject to restriction in case of rough, scrubby or stony land. Livestock may be substituted for cultivation under certain conditions.

W. W. CORY C.M.G.,

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

12 B.—Unauthorized publication of this advertisement will be paid for, 6438

Let us forget Magrath Fair and Sports, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 29-30 next week. Boost the fair. It is going to be a good one.

Hodges Was Acquitted

The decision of the judge in the case of Rex vs. Robert Hodges, in which the accused was completely exonerated from the charge of forgery, was received in this community with general approval. At the trial in Lethbridge young Dow confessed that Hodges did not give him the bill in question, and the judge dismissed the case.

For several months the suspicion of guilt of a very serious offence has been hanging over the head of young Hodges. His family, one of the oldest and most highly respected in the town, have felt this very heavily. A grave injustice has been done them, as they have suffered in worse ways than financial loss.
However, with the complete exoneration of the boy, they can feel that they have emerged from the trial with flying colors.

Patching Had 60 Bus. Crop

What will be the yield per acre in the Magrath district this year, is a question widely asked. The average will be thirty-five at least.
The best yield thus far is reported by T. W. Patching, who farms in the north part of the district. He had 160 acres that averaged sixty-five bushels to the acre. This is the best yield on record in the history of Southern Alberta so far, as the Leader is aware. The Magrath district will report an average as high as last year without a doubt.

BAKERY Bread, large 10c, 2 small loaves 15c Fresh Bread Daily

Soft Drinks, Ice cream, Soda Fountain

Candy Tobacco Cigars

Good Meals our Specialty

LONG JIM

FRUIT & CONFECTIONERY

Magrath - Alta.

FALL GOODS

We are now showing a Full Line of Fall and Winter
Underwear, Dress
Goods, Etc.,
Everything for Ladies and Gents

A Little Reminder

Owing to the Great Difficulty in procuring Wool
Goods we advise an early selection

GRANT & DAVIES
Magrath Phone '82 Alberta

DON'T GET Frost Bitten

when we have

Stanfield's
Famous (Unshrinkable)
Underwear
"For the Whole Family"

Our Shelves are now full of

Fall Goods

Get Your Wants Supplied Now

Give Us Your Order For Fresh Fruit

Magrath Trading Co

"A Good Place To Trade"

SIR
PENYVERN'S
WIFE

FLORENCE WARDEN

(Continued)

Lady Acric was beginning to understand that the affair was serious, and after a pause, during which Daphne had walked away and turned back, she came back and thrusting a hand confidentially and with demonstrative affectionateness under Daphne's arm, burst into a laugh of gentle mockery.

Daphne tried to disengage herself, but Lady Acric, who was all ways in the doctor's hands, without ever seeming to have much the matter with her to interfere with anything but her duties, had a good muscular grip and she would not let her niece go.

"There, now, my dear child, you can't be angry with your old aunt, can you? You mustn't mind my laughing. It was only your suggestion that you yourself could be in fault as so utterly contrary—what shall I say—to absolutely, more foolishly incredible, my dear child."

And she looked into Daphne's face with eyes which contained a certain veiled amusement.

Daphne, brought to bay, boldly and firmly wiped away her tears, and said in a choking voice: "I—I hope you're right. I—I should never do anything unworthy—I mean anything that wasn't quite right, unless—"

She stopped.

"I don't mean that ever, Lady Acric looked down so that she should not betray her feeling, and asked her niece with a tender look:

"Unless what, my dear?"

Daphne drew herself up, in despair.

"Or mean," she said in a firm voice, "I mean I should say in the right thing, in all cases, whatever difficult or as nearly the right thing as I know how to do."

And she looked suddenly weak and plaintive.

Lady Acric, who saw that there was something gravely amiss, was desperately anxious to know what it was.

"I'm sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"I am sure of it, Daphne, quite sure of it. But, perhaps, dear child, you may find yourself—"

"right" rather shortly, and the hall-door shut.

Then he came in, with an alarm-bell on his face.

"You've got rid of your visitor, Sir Penyvern?" said Lady Acric, who was, while Daphne, watching him furtively, in evident distress, grew up with annoyance at her aunt's obvious curiosity.

"Yes, he got rid of her," said he. "He turned to his wife. It was a woman who said she was Bathsheba's landlady. She wanted money."

Lady Acric, as if anxious to leave her husband and wife to discuss the matter together, strolled across the room to the nearest window, where the curtain was still undrawn, and watched the strange figure of the widow.

Daphne looked stealthily at her aunt.

"Money?" echoed she.

He nodded.

"Yes, she said she went away owing three weeks' rent. A lie, of course. But I gave her the money."

A look of relief passed over Daphne's face.

"Then, having been successful so far, she tried again. She declared that she had taken with her all her savings, twenty-five pounds."

Lady Acric, as if anxious to leave her husband and wife to discuss the matter together, strolled across the room to the nearest window, where the curtain was still undrawn, and watched the strange figure of the widow.

Daphne looked stealthily at her aunt.

"Money?" echoed she.

He nodded.

"Yes, she said she went away owing three weeks' rent. A lie, of course. But I gave her the money."

A look of relief passed over Daphne's face.

"Then, having been successful so far, she tried again. She declared that she had taken with her all her savings, twenty-five pounds."

Lady Acric, as if anxious to leave her husband and wife to discuss the matter together, strolled across the room to the nearest window, where the curtain was still undrawn, and watched the strange figure of the widow.

Daphne looked stealthily at her aunt.

"Money?" echoed she.

He nodded.

"Yes, she said she went away owing three weeks' rent. A lie, of course. But I gave her the money."

A look of relief passed over Daphne's face.

"Then, having been successful so far, she tried again. She declared that she had taken with her all her savings, twenty-five pounds."

Lady Acric, as if anxious to leave her husband and wife to discuss the matter together, strolled across the room to the nearest window, where the curtain was still undrawn, and watched the strange figure of the widow.

Daphne looked stealthily at her aunt.

"Money?" echoed she.

He nodded.

"Yes, she said she went away owing three weeks' rent. A lie, of course. But I gave her the money."

A look of relief passed over Daphne's face.

"Then, having been successful so far, she tried again. She declared that she had taken with her all her savings, twenty-five pounds."

Lady Acric, as if anxious to leave her husband and wife to discuss the matter together, strolled across the room to the nearest window, where the curtain was still undrawn, and watched the strange figure of the widow.

Daphne looked stealthily at her aunt.

"Money?" echoed she.

He nodded.

"Yes, she said she went away owing three weeks' rent. A lie, of course. But I gave her the money."

A look of relief passed over Daphne's face.

"Then, having been successful so far, she tried again. She declared that she had taken with her all her savings, twenty-five pounds."

Lady Acric, as if anxious to leave her husband and wife to discuss the matter together, strolled across the room to the nearest window, where the curtain was still undrawn, and watched the strange figure of the widow.

Daphne looked stealthily at her aunt.

"Money?" echoed she.

He nodded.

"Yes, she said she went away owing three weeks' rent. A lie, of course. But I gave her the money."

A look of relief passed over Daphne's face.

"Then, having been successful so far, she tried again. She declared that she had taken with her all her savings, twenty-five pounds."

Lady Acric, as if anxious to leave her husband and wife to discuss the matter together, strolled across the room to the nearest window, where the curtain was still undrawn, and watched the strange figure of the widow.

Daphne looked stealthily at her aunt.

"Money?" echoed she.

He nodded.

"Yes, she said she went away owing three weeks' rent. A lie, of course. But I gave her the money."

A look of relief passed over Daphne's face.

"Then, having been successful so far, she tried again. She declared that she had taken with her all her savings, twenty-five pounds."

Lady Acric, as if anxious to leave her husband and wife to discuss the matter together, strolled across the room to the nearest window, where the curtain was still undrawn, and watched the strange figure of the widow.

Daphne looked stealthily at her aunt.

"Money?" echoed she.

He nodded.

"Yes, she said she went away owing three weeks' rent. A lie, of course. But I gave her the money."

A look of relief passed over Daphne's face.

"Then, having been successful so far, she tried again. She declared that she had taken with her all her savings, twenty-five pounds."

Lady Acric, as if anxious to leave her husband and wife to discuss the matter together, strolled across the room to the nearest window, where the curtain was still undrawn, and watched the strange figure of the widow.

Daphne looked stealthily at her aunt.

"Money?" echoed she.

A BRIGHT TOBACCO OF THE FINEST QUALITY

Proposals for Peace
Germany Must Accept, Not Impose,
Terms of Peace

What Germany is regarded as the latest German unofficial suggestion of peace terms are to be found in an article by Professor Hugo Mueller in the magazine section of the New York Times. The professor is a German by birth, and since the outbreak of the war he has frequently figured as the philosophical champion of the Teutonic point of view. It is not, therefore, stretching credulity too far to regard his writings as having some touch of inspiration from Berlin. What, then, are the terms which in his opinion Germany would accept?

Germany, he says, will not demand a square inch of the conquered territory in France or Belgium. She will agree to surrender Kiao-Chiao to Japan and South-West Africa to Great Britain. In return she would expect to receive Colabaud from Russia and some African colonies from France, and she would be prepared to give up Alsace-Lorraine to Poland. Russia would be compensated by being given all the Baltic provinces. Poland, France, may get the port of today, but would be expected to give up a large piece of Morocco.

This is the most liberal peace suggestion of a settlement. The briefest summary of it is that Germany would give up everything she has in Europe, and in return she would get everything she needs in Africa and Asia.

And all this precious arrangement is to be carried out by means of an alliance between Germany, Great Britain and the United States, and Germany, having failed to get any help from his wife, resolved to drag his wife and children into the war.

Lady Acric, though she looked at the news with some interest, was not much moved by it.

"I've no doubt she's right. But I don't see how she can expect Sir Penyvern to do it."

Daphne looked at him steadily.

"There's a pause. He was anxious for her to ask more questions about the matter, but she knew anything about it."

Lady Acric, though she looked at the news with some interest, was not much moved by it.

"I've no doubt she's right. But I don't see how she can expect Sir Penyvern to do it."

Daphne looked at him steadily.

"There's a pause. He was anxious for her to ask more questions about the matter, but she knew anything about it."

Lady Acric, though she looked at the news with some interest, was not much moved by it.

"I've no doubt she's right. But I don't see how she can expect Sir Penyvern to do it."

Daphne looked at him steadily.

"There's a pause. He was anxious for her to ask more questions about the matter, but she knew anything about it."

Lady Acric, though she looked at the news with some interest, was not much moved by it.

"I've no doubt she's right. But I don't see how she can expect Sir Penyvern to do it."

Daphne looked at him steadily.

"There's a pause. He was anxious for her to ask more questions about the matter, but she knew anything about it."

Lady Acric, though she looked at the news with some interest, was not much moved by it.

"I've no doubt she's right. But I don't see how she can expect Sir Penyvern to do it."

Daphne looked at him steadily.

"There's a pause. He was anxious for her to ask more questions about the matter, but she knew anything about it."

Lady Acric, though she looked at the news with some interest, was not much moved by it.

"I've no doubt she's right. But I don't see how she can expect Sir Penyvern to do it."

Daphne looked at him steadily.

"There's a pause. He was anxious for her to ask more questions about the matter, but she knew anything about it."

Lady Acric, though she looked at the news with some interest, was not much moved by it.

"I've no doubt she's right. But I don't see how she can expect Sir Penyvern to do it."

Daphne looked at him steadily.

"There's a pause. He was anxious for her to ask more questions about the matter, but she knew anything about it."

Lady Acric, though she looked at the news with some interest, was not much moved by it.

Best Roads in the World
Value of Good Roads to a Farming Community Is Shown in

In France, where they have the best roads of any country in the world, the highways are divided into several classes, but all of them are supervised by the national government, which maintains a bureau of roads and bridges, and supports a school for the education of the engineers and inspectors who are employed in this bureau. This method of France is started by the first Napoleon, who appears to have been the first European statesman who clearly saw the economic advantage of proper highways, and who at the same time had the power to carry out what he wanted. The effect of these good roads in France has been enormous. They have brought all the various parts of the country nearer together, they have made country life less lonely, and they have increased the production of agricultural products to a great extent.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

Civilized nations have good roads—unimproved and unimproved. The value of the roads is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

The price at which a farm will sell its produce is the best test of the value of the roads. In France, the price is higher than in any other country, and the quality of its neighboring roads. To increase the value of the roads, the government has decided to build a new road every year, and to make it a law that every farmer who owns a farm must have a good road leading to it.

Capturing a Mine Layer
How a German Mine-Layer Was Taken By the British

Details of the capture of the U.C.S. the German submarine mine layer now on view on the Thames.

In April last a torpedo-boat destroyer was out exercising off the coast coast. When she sighted the mine layer, she was in difficulties, and from the deck of the destroyer, then some distance away, a flag could be seen at the masthead of the submarine, and in the mist it was at first taken to be the Union Jack.

Closer inspection proved it to be the German naval ensign, and then it was noticed that the whole of the crew of the submarine appeared to be on deck. The comic side of the situation was not lost on the men of the destroyer, and once apprised of the enemy character of the distressed vessel they set to work to make her a prize.

The commander hailed the crew with a shout, and soon for the first time the submarine mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer. The mine layer was seen from the deck of the destroyer.

Germany Cannot Yet
Divide the Earth

Maximilien Harden Issues a Grim Warning to His Country

Maximilien Harden, writing in Le Zinkun, says:

"What prestige could force a quick conclusion of peace?"

"If Russia lost all her Polish territories the conqueror to follow her perhaps even to Vladivostok. It is said that France could be forced to lodge her army and to suffer German authority. But there are her colonies. You can only take them when you have delivered England of her strength."

"How can you deprive England of her strength? Favor of heaven, or accident might bring about a revolution in India. A Russian invasion at Suez, damage by fire, mass strikes in Britain, or a sea battle which would leave so much to England that she would be able with the ships of France and Japan to patch up something like a fleet of a great power."

"But Britain is not even suffering yet. London's flag has shown no fear. Her commerce from America does not need to give up anything by which we could fetch raw materials for our industry."

"Recapitulating the different times, do not imagine that the end position is dividing up the earth. A decision is not yet made. The English blooded English."

"Russian armies stand again in Galicia, and the Carpathians. Even if they are beaten into a second retreat, who will give its guarantee that the Russian ones more freed of ice, there will be a new offensive. The present offensive is not their highest effort. Still more furious offensive will follow. The earth is not to be divided yet."

"The special correspondent of the London Times at British Headquarters writes: 'The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year.'

"The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year."

"The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year."

"The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year."

"The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year."

"The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year."

"The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year."

"The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year."

"The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year."

"The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year."

Strength of Enemy Defences
Elaborations of German Defences in Occupied Territory

The special correspondent of the London Times at British Headquarters writes: "The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year."

The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year.

The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year.

The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year.

The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year.

The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year.

The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year.

The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year.

The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have taken in the last year. The British are in all the places which we have

The Time To Get Busy

Is when a visit from the People's Market is served, for if you have a keen appetite you want to start eating without delay. We aim to carry a choice line of

Beef, Mutton, Pork, Veal, also a full stock of Lard, Hams and Bacon
Try Our Celebrated
PORK SAUSAGE

The People's Meat Market
George Speidel, Prop.

A Good Meal

necessitates good meat containing nourishing muscle-building properties.

You won't make a mistake if you order your

MEAT FROM US

We give you full weight and the best cuts of choice selected meats. Then we serve you courteously, give you just what you ask for.

PIEPGRASS MARKET

Gentlemen!

Our new Fall and Winter Samples of Mens Clothing has arrived. Call and inspect them.

Style, Quality and Fit Guaranteed

THE BROADWAY

A Charming Complexion

Without Artificiality

To acquire a beautiful complexion you must avoid doubtful preparations which harm the skin. Keep the skin rosy and healthy by using

Myal's Massage Cream

It is not a beautifier in itself, but by rubbing through the pores it brings out the clogged waste matter and allows the skin to breathe. This natural pore breathing brings a ruddy, healthy glow to the skin. PRICE 35c JAR.

Raymond Pharmacy

D. B. FOWLER, MGR.

Myal's Quality Store

Let the "Leader" do your
PRINTING

RAYMOND LEADER Published Every Friday $1.50 a Year in Advance

F. C. STEELE, Editor

Godchoy Kills.

The 113th Lethbridge Highlanders, South Alberta's Own, with Lieut.-Col. Price-Jones commanding, left this week for the east. The 113th is a splendid body of men, well drilled, thoroughly seasoned and eager to get into the line where history is being made. The movement of this battalion has been expected for some time, but the order for embarkation came rather abruptly. The battalion is now on its long journey toward the heart of the Empire, the great, throbbing Mother Heart of this most glorious family of states. Southern Alberta is proud of the Kitties and their movements will be closely followed. Raymond is directly concerned in them as quite a number of our men and boys are in "Price-Jones" battalion. It is confidently expected that the Kitties will uphold the honor of Canada and the high traditions of the British army. The Leader feels sure that nothing but glory will follow their colors. We wish them God-speed and a speedy and safe return.

A Steady Pull Necessary.

Our editorial of last week relative to the campaign for an agricultural school for Raymond, met with a favorable reception from the citizens. We have reasons to believe that such was the case. Now the thing must be followed up, a suggestion is not enough. The town council and the board of trade could act jointly in the matter. All available data and statistics which might be called for by the government should be secured and filed. We ought to know just what Raymond has to offer to obtain the school. What lands are available. These are but a few of the matters that must be gone into thoroughly. A systematic, aggressive campaign MAY bring the desired result—a school, desultory request NEVER will. Is the school worth the effort? If it is we ought to get busy right now. Nothing definite perhaps will be done until after the war, but the end of the war may be nearer than is generally thought.

It is about time the government telephone department gave some relief to this part of the country. We do not refer to the local exchange, but to the repair department. The Leader's phone has been out of order for nearly two weeks and the "trouble man" has not put in an appearance, although due notification was given. Not long ago our phone was out of order for about a week before it was fixed. Similar complaints are reported from other quarters. The system is not at all satisfactory. There should be another "trouble shooter" in the south country. The territory to be covered by the present one is altogether too large.

Some are predicting two-dollar wheat by next Spring. With a great shortage in wheat production reported this year from every agricultural nation, the prediction is not beyond the range of possibility.

Leo M. Combs has accepted a position on the staff of the Knight Academy and will teach voice culture two days each week. Mr. Combs is an affiliated teacher of the New York School of Music and Arts, and is thoroughly qualified to take over this work in the Academy. Recently he gave a recital here, his pieces being very well appreciated as he possesses a pleasing attractive voice.

E A T

at Raymond's new restaurant, the American Quick Lunch. All kinds of short order meals served in real city style. Fine Bill of Fare. Next do The Broadway.

FOR SALE
Second hand heater in good condition.
Apply, D. G. Selman Raymond

FOR SALE—One 30x60 Rumely Separator, feeder, blower 18 feet, weighing and belts, will sell cheap if taken at once.
Apply Herman Hillmer, Magrath, Alta.

FOR SALE—For cash, easy terms or will trade for either cattle or horses two improved town lots, description, Lots 4 and 5, Blk. 178, Plan 14891. There is a good house, barn and other buildings on lots. Apply, Bart Kenny, Raymond.

PLENTY OF COAL

Nut Coal 3.60 ton

Lump " 5.15 ton

BUY NOW

Fillison Milling Co

Raymond - Alberta

Thos. E. Ott

Buy That Suit
Do Not Delay

Rex Tailoring

Agency Suits Made to order. Try One

Barbering a Specialty
Baths in Connection

LIQUIDATORS

SALE

Still On

We Solicit Your Trade

The Hub Co. Ltd
Raymond, Alta.,

Our Chef Knows
H O W

Give him a chance to prove it
Fresh Bread Daily Try a Loaf

N. Y. CAFE

Sugar City Cafe

"At Your Service"

Best Meal in Town

Fruit, Ice Cream, Candy
Tobacco and Cigars

Electric Fans Private Booths Music

Just Arrived
A New Shipment of

House Paints,
Coach Paints,
Wagon Paints,

Floor Stains, Varnish
Enamels and Oils

O'Brien-Nalder Company Ltd.

Phone 13

The Corner Store

Phone 13